On July 30, 1911 a handsome granite to represent Petersburg at the Playmarker was erected at the Crater, and ground and Recreation Convention to a memorial to Mahone's Brigade. It marks the spot of nearest approach of the brigade in its famous charge to retake the captured Confederate sa-lient, and it stands almost at the edge of the Crater. The marker was un-veiled by a granddaughter of General Mahone, and the historic address was delivered by Colonel William H. Stewart, commanding the Sixty-first Reg-iment of the brigade. A large assem-blage was present at the ceremony, but only twenty survivors of the bri-gade who fought in the crater battle were present, two of whom Colonel W. H. Stewart and George S. Ber-nard. The other survivors who were present were; J. E. Whitehome, U Simmons, B. F. Eckles, L. A. Aldridge, R. B. Davis, Putnam Stith, Robert G. Thompson, George W. THE BOULEVARD AND R., F. & P. R. R.

In execution of a certain deed of trust from the Richmond Iron Works Corporation to J. Jordan Leake and H. A. McCurdy, trustees, dated April 1, 1910, and recorded in D. B. 183-B, page 448, in the cierk's ontee of Henrico Circuit Court, default having been made thereunder, and being required so to do by figure bondholders secured thereunder, and pursuant to an order of the United States. District Court for the Eastern District of Virghdia, at Richmond, entered March 6, 1913, in the matter of Richmond Iron Works Corporation, bankrupt, the undersigned will offer for sale, upon the premises, on MONDAY, MAY 5, 1913, the entire plant of said corporation, bankrupt, located as mentioned. The land has a frontage of 624 feet on the eastern line of the Boulevard, commencing at a point distant 1,536 feet north of its intersection with Broad Street, and runs back eastwardly to a street or road on which it has a frontage of 323 feet, more or less; contains 4.187 acres, according to a plat recorded in Deed Book 173-A, page 199, of the records of the Circuit Court of the County of Henrico, a copy of which will be exhibited at time of sale.

The buildings consist of machine shop, iron foundry, brass foundry, pattern shop, blacksmith's shop, pattern storage shop, power house office, etc.; a detailed description of same may be obtained from auctioneers.

The plant is complete in every respect, and contains all machinery necessary for the prosecution of a foundry and machine business—everything ready writer in the office. A detailed list of all outlidings and personal property is in the hands of the auctioneers, and a personal inspection of the plant may be had at any time on application to them.

The water service consists of large open cistern of 100,000 gallons capacity for boiler purposes and supply for fire engine in event of fire, and for other purposes there is a three-inch main from city supply used jointly with shops of seaboard Railroad.

The power house contains, besides engines, a 3
